The firm

Founded in 2012, Nova Partners is an independent law firm based in Marseille, specialising in corporate finance matters (financing, private equity, M&A, restructuring and real estate), both on a domestic and on an international scale, for banks, investors, GPs and LPs, corporate groups (SME/mid-cap companies/multinational companies) and directors/managers.

Nova Partners has a single office in Marseille, with clients across France and internationally.

The team has expanded significantly in recent years with now eight partners and 12 fee-earners.

Nova Partners has recently launched a real estate department to assist banks, investors, corporate clients or wealthy individuals with their real estate transactions (real estate acquisitions, financing transactions, and development operations etc) with a particular focus on cross-border transactions.

Areas of practice

With experience gained from top-tier firms, members of Nova Partners are able to deal with highly complex matters and value-added transactions both on a domestic and on an international scale. The team brings its know-how and multi-disciplinary legal expertise (tax and legal) to serve their clients’ financial and commercial interests, by taking an extremely strong business approach.

Nova Partners undertakes the full range of financing, corporate and corporate finance work for international corporate groups (small and medium size companies/multinational corporations/listed companies), start-ups, directors/managers, investment funds, GPs, LPs or banks.

The financing and corporate team is recognised for its extensive expertise in corporate matters with a strong emphasis on structuring, negotiating and implementing corporate finance transactions such as: venture capital, growth capital, LBO and LBU, M&A, restructuring, financing, structured financing, joint ventures.

The multidisciplinary team of Nova Partners also offers its customers a wide range of services to support financing and corporate transactional work, including tax, banking and finance, international development and cross-border transactions, commercial contracts and partnership advice, employment, restructuring and business difficulties, litigation and real estate.

Nova Partners is member of MSI Global Alliance (MSI), an international association of lawyers, tax consultants, off-shore service providers and consultants, one of the world’s top ten multidisciplinary associations and more than 250 independent firms in more than 100 jurisdictions, in America, Asia Pacific, Europe, Middle/East or Africa. With a strong international presence, Nova Partners can pilot and co-ordinate the legal advice and services provided in over 100 countries worldwide.
